The types of permanent funds that can be established at The Community Foundation—over the course of one’s lifetime and/or through one’s estate—are flexible in their design to provide something for everyone. In 2019, as in most recent years, donor advised funds have been the most popular type of fund to be created. Donor advised funds are an easy and smart way to support multiple charities and establish one’s charitable legacy.

In 2019, they established a fund at The Community Foundation and included a bequest in their wills so that the support of these interests will be advanced for generations to come.

“We’re at a point in our lives when we want to start thinking about a legacy and how to plan for our retirement and thereafter,” say Allen and Hyatte. “We’re new to more formalized philanthropy. We never realized this costs nothing and is what is most remembered.”

The couple believe it is important to “celebrate and share what makes you strong, but above all, be kind. It costs nothing and is what is most remembered.”

The Linda and Kenneth Cohen Family Fund

The Linda and Kenneth Cohen Family Fund is dedicated to developing the leaders of tomorrow, say fund founders, Linda and Kenneth. The fund will be used to support five or six different charities that show a strong interest in youth development, community arts and education.

“It was a natural fit to choose The Community Foundation,” say the Cohens. “It was a way that would allow us to contribute to various charities that support causes that we are interested in. It allows us to be flexible with our giving.”

Both Linda and Kenneth have been involved with various charities and organizations over the years. One of high importance to Linda is The Amity Teen Center in Woodbridge. The Center allows for teens to do something positive and creative with their free time, instead of getting involved in more troublesome activities.

Another organization the couple likes is The Southern Poverty Law Center, which focuses on teaching tolerance and aids in abolishing hate crimes and hate groups.

“The was a natural fit to work with The Community Foundation,” says Linda and Kenneth Cohen. “Living in the New Haven area for 45 years, it’s nice to be able to work with a foundation that is so deeply rooted within the community, and so committed to giving back to others.”

John D. Allen and Keith E. Hyatte Fund for LGBTQ+ Interests

The 50th anniversary of the Stonewall riots inspired John Allen, founder of the New Haven Pride Center, and his husband Keith Hyatte, retired director of the Long Wharf Theatre, to start thinking about their legacy. They decided it was time that giving back and so committed to giving back to the LGBTQ+ community take on a new form — one that would provide a revenue stream long after their lifetimes.

The couple, who met in New Haven, cares deeply about LGBTQ+ interests, the arts, animal rights and veganism.
Cynthia D. Conrad Fund
Est. 2019 by Cynthia D. Conrad.

Dr. Cynthia Conrad has supported the Community Fund for Women & Girls for more than two decades. As a pediatrician who owns her own practice and is a Lecturer at Yale in the Department of Psychiatry, she knows the importance of supporting work that advances the "best self." "I first became aware of the Fund for Women and Girls many years ago in conversation with Mary Arinstein, a member of the Fund's founding group," says Conrad. "The Fund's mission clearly resonated with my own -- empowering women and girls to reach their highest potential, providing grants for the promotion of gender equality and economic security, supporting women and girls with special needs or who face other barriers to success."

In 2019, Dr. Conrad made her annual gift to support the Community Fund for Women & Girls in a different way. She chose to use a qualified charitable distribution from her IRA to set up a designated fund in her name that will support the Fund for Women & Girls in perpetuity. She is now among 25 others who have established designated funds to support the social and economic advancement of women and girls.

Michele DiCapua Memorial Scholarship Fund

Est. 2019 by Tara DiCapua and Jordyn Zembrowski.

Michele DiCapua described her life to taking care of people. For 48 years she was a Registered Nurse, working first in hospitals, home care and geriatrics before eventually becoming a school nurse in the New Haven Public Schools. She was also the primary caregiver for her son Daniel, who was born with a congenital heart defect and learning disabilities. Leaning on her nursing background, Michele tirelessly advocated for Daniel as they navigated a complicated health plan involving seven open-heart surgeries. Michele spent the last two decades as a school nurse for many different New Haven schools. Her work and the experience of growing up with Daniel inspired Tara to follow her mother’s example. Tara is now a clinical coordinator at Yale New Haven Hospital and her daughter, Jordyn, is studying to become a teacher while her brother Daniel, is growing with giving families as he pursues his degree in mortuary science.

“Shesaved her life for everybody but herself,” says Tara DiCapua, her daugh

Dr. Richard A. Ehrenkranz Memorial Fund
Est. 2019 by Susan, Jeff and Peter Ehrenkranz.

Dr. Richard Ehrenkranz impacted the lives of thousands of families over his 42-year career in medicine and research. His wife Susan and sons Peter and Jeff are honoring this legacy by educating the next generation of health-care professionals. The Richard A. Ehrenkranz Memorial Fund provides on-going support for Dr. Ehrenkranz’s passion and life’s work: Neonatology — the medical care of newborn infants, especially in the most complex and high-risk situations. Friends, family, colleagues, and patients all benefited from Dr. Ehrenkranz’s caring and compassion. Peter fondly recalls: “When we went out to dinner in the New Haven area, it was uncommon for people to come up to him and thank him for the impact he had on their lives. Although he may not have remembered all of their names, he could recall their circumstances, and he remembered them. To me, that is a testament to his character, his generosity, and his kind’s passion and life’s work.”

Distributions from the Fund, will be used to support, in part, an annual Neonatology Symposium at the Yale University School of Medicine that is named in Dr. Ehrenkranz’s honor and focuses on his special interest in improving outcomes for infants born with extremely low birth weights.

Paltz Family Fund

Est. 2019 by Pam and Albert Paltz

The Paltz family has strong ties to Yale University, where Pam and Albert Paltz met and two out of three of their children attended school. So it is no surprise they have been supporting their alma mater for years. “Given our resources, our donations to Yale were kind of a drop in the bucket,” Pam says. “We thought the best thing we could do for Yale is support the New Haven community. By supporting New Haven, we felt like New Haven was a good place to base the fund even though we live in California.”

One of the ways the Paltz family learned they could support New Haven in perpetuity was through establishing a donor advised fund at The Community Foundation. It was their trusted financial advisor who shared his experience of setting up such a fund with his family that inspired Albert and Pam to do the same in 2019.

“Our kids are grown, but the idea of sitting around a table once a year as a family and talking about the organizations that are meaningful to us was really appealing,” Pam says. “We liked what our advisor said about The Foundation and about the flexibility of being able to make charitable donations through it.”

Albert explains. “For those reasons, we felt like New Haven was a good place to base the fund even though we live in California.”

The Paltz family looks forward to getting together to discuss giving strategies, but have not wasted any time since starting their fund to give to the organizations they love.

Jean Webb is extremely proud of her mother, Mary Kimbrough Webb, who was born on farm in Hancock County, Illinois, and became a college educated woman in a time when women did not typically attend college. She trained to be a home economics teacher, but, after a few years of teaching, she married, raised children, ran a tool rental business and ultimately served as a guidance counselor.

To know Mary was to know a believer in the strength of women, an active in her church, the AAUW, and the YWCA. She was also a generous woman, who was committed to the rights of women, racial equality, and the well-being and welfare of people who are poor. Together with her second husband, Mary created a scholarship to help students meet their tuition obligations at alma mater, where she met her Jean’s dad.

Mary lived to be the great age of 99, and her life and legacy will now live on the fund that bears her name at The Foundation. “I believe she would be proud,” says Jean of her mother. “She would be happy to know that she taught me well; taught me how to care for my community. The fund that I established is a direct reflection of her values, and of the freedom she granted me to fashion my own.”
